E2, 30 12/13/1766 recorded 1789	David & Mary McPherson to Enoch Wickersham, message and tract	99 acres 33 perches £173 12s 2d
Will book 17, 81 Will dated 1/1836	Enoch Wickersham left property "containing nearly 50 acres" to his nephew Gideon Wickersham in trust until Gideon's son Enoch P. Wickersham arrived at 21 years of age. EW's will also left Gideon several small tracts of land, but to Gideon for his son EPW, EW left "all the remaining part of my plantation with all the buildings and improvements." EW died in 10/1836 at 97 years.
Judging from its structure, we believe the house was built in the mid-1800s, possibly incorporating an older house. --MK, MLD
